

SAVE the DATE

Dinner Meeting

May 25, 2022

Doors open 5pm

Filtration and Infusion Management

Presented by Catherine Kane, BSN, RN, Clinical Specialist

Pall Corporation

Objectives: 1. Understand the risks of not filtering IV solutions 2. Understand the benefits of IV filtration 3. Understand endotoxins, the relevance and clinical effects of endotoxins in IV infusions and how IV filters can prevent endotoxin infusion. 4. Understand how particles can contaminate IV infusions, clinical effects of infusing particles and current guidelines. 5. Understand current guidelines and best practice for filtering TPN & lipids 6. Understand how IV filtration has been shown to reduce the incidence of phlebitis 7. Understand the risk and incidences of infusing air intravenously 8. Understand current admin and filtration guidelines and recommendations for monoclonal antibodies and risk of protein-based drugs.

Where: Cleveland Clinic Administration Campus Building 4 3175 Science Park Drive
Beachwood, OH 44122

Times: 5pm Registration begins (doors open)

5:30pm Vendor Fair, Dinner

6:30pm Brief business meeting

6:45pm Presentation

Must Register to Attend

Free for all NEO-AVA members, $15 for all other attendees (No refunds)

Please register ONLINE at www.neo-ava.wildapricot.org

Provider approved by the California Board of registered nursing, provider number CEP121371 for 1 contact hour